Who are we?

HumanitiesDC (also known as the Humanities Council of Washington, DC) is a private, nonprofit organization that is an affiliate of the National Endowment of the Humanities. HumanitiesDC is one of 56 affiliates found in every state and territory in the United States.

Our Mission

Enrich the quality of life, foster intellectual stimulation, and promote cross-cultural understanding and appreciation of local history in all neighborhoods of the District through humanities programs and grants.

What are humanities?

The humanities are defined by the amended National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities Act of 1965:

"The term 'humanities' includes, but is not limited to, the study and interpretation of the following: language, both modern and classical; linguistics; literature; history; jurisprudence; philosophy; archaeology; comparative religion; ethics; the history, criticism and theory of the arts; those aspects of the social sciences which have humanistic content and employ humanistic methods; and the study and application of the humanities to the human environment with particular attention to reflecting our diverse heritage, traditions, and history and to the relevance of the humanities to the current conditions of national life."

The humanities tell us what it means to be human.

The Humanities comprise a set of disciplines that seek to understand human expression. By exploring the ways humans have expressed their relationships to one another and the world around them, academic and public humanists can: establish a sense of community and collective responsibility, encourage critical thinking and life-long learning, and create new opportunities for conversation and dialogue.

They help us understand...

Our story's past: history, anthropology, archaeology;

Our story's expressions: literature, linguistics, languages, arts history, theory and criticism;

Our story's values: ethics, philosophy, comparative religion, law.

Who can apply for this grant?

- Individuals or Organizations
- Anyone who has successfully closed all past grants with HumanitieDC. Organizations that were deemed not in good standing or have an open grant with HumanitiesDC cannot apply for this funding opportunity.

What are the eligibility requirements?

- Must be a federally incorporated 501c3 non-profit organization.
- Must be registered with, and authorized to do business in, the District as either a “Domestic” entity (that is, an entity that was incorporated in the District) or a “Foreign” entity (that is, an entity that was incorporated in another state).
- Must register and comply with the regulatory requirements of the following agencies:
 - District of Columbia Department of Consumer and Regulatory Affairs (DCRA) – Corporations Division (indicating an “active” business license status at the time of application and agreeing to maintain such status throughout the grant period).
 - District of Columbia Office of the Chief Financial Officer, Office of Tax and Revenue (OTR).
 - District of Columbia Department of Employment Services (DOES).
 - United States Internal Revenue Service (IRS)
- Must be able to obtain a certification of “Citywide Clean Hands” (CCH) from the District of Columbia Office of Tax and Revenue.
- Must be an organization for which Washington, DC residents comprise the majority of its constituents.

- Must have a principal business office address that is in the District of Columbia and is accessible to onsite review. Post office boxes will not be accepted.
- Must be in good standing with HumanitiesDC. Applicants with outstanding or delinquent reports or final products from previous HumanitiesDC grants must submit them completed and without deficiencies at least 30 days before the deadline for which they wish to apply.
- Prohibited applicants include: private clubs and organizations that prohibit membership based upon race, gender, color, religion, or any other classes identified in the District of Columbia Human Rights Act; for-profit (commercial) entities; political organizations; organizations whose primary focus is in the performing or visual arts (see the DC Commission on the Arts and Humanities for applicable funding opportunities); organizations with no paid staff; universities; foreign governments; federal government entities; organizations receiving significant federal funding; and District of Columbia government agencies.
- Must have a valid DUNS number (<https://www.dnb.com/duns-number.html>). Organizations do not need to have a DUNS number to submit an application but will not be able to receive funding until one is obtained.

Successful applications will have the following components:

Humanities Focus: Projects must incorporate relevant humanities scholarship with specific focus on one or more central humanities disciplines. Topics should be innovative, unique and/or of a strong interest to a wide audience.

Watch the 2015 project showcase video for example of past projects.

Strong Scholar Involvement:

Each project will include a humanities-based scholar, historian or expert as an advisor or partner who is knowledgeable about the relevant field or subject matter and dedicated to helping guide the project to completion. Applicants should demonstrate that the scholar has the appropriate expertise and has committed to participating throughout the grant cycle.

Community Partnership:

All proposed grant projects should demonstrate both how the community will benefit from the project and be actively involved in its creation.

Originality:

Public interpretation of a new idea

New or revised perspectives on settled scholarship
The illumination of hidden stories
Innovative methods of encouraging public engagement with the humanities

Prospective applicants should conduct a literature survey and environmental scan to ensure that they are breaking new ground in one or more of these ways.

A tangible final product is a requirement of this grant. Below are examples, not an exhaustive list:

Please do not create a new account if you already have an account. If you or your organization have applied for a HumanitiesDC grant before, please DO NOT create a new account. If you are having trouble accessing your existing account, please email HumanitiesDC's grant team – grants@wdchumanities.org.

Frequently Asked Questions:

Can I use these funds to compensate individuals that share their stories, expertise or time?

Yes, we encourage grantees to follow best practices of offering an honorarium to compensate those involved with your project. Currently, HumanitiesDC offers $150 honorarium, we strongly suggest this as a minimum amount of compensation for those offering their stories, expertise, or time.

Do I attend the DC Community Heritage Showcase?

All grantees are required to participate in the Showcase, at this time it is scheduled for November 2022. Grantees will be notified of the Showcase date after the grant period has begun, with ample time to finalize work for presentation.

How will funds be disbursed?

Humanities DC will disburse grant awards in one-time, lump sum payments.

Can we apply for more than one grant per cycle?

Yes, you can submit multiple applications. Grantees can only have one open grant with HumanitiesDC. (This excludes special emergency funding such as the SHARP Grant).

Can we apply with a fiscal sponsor?

Yes, you can apply with a fiscal sponsor. Please note that the fiscal sponsor must meet the eligibility requirements for the respective grant. Organizations without 501c3 non-profit status may apply through an organization serving as a fiscal sponsor provided that the fiscal sponsor organization meets all eligibility requirements in this RFP. Individuals may also apply through a fiscal sponsor. Under this arrangement, the fiscal sponsor organization takes on all financial and legal obligations of the grant award. Fiscal sponsors may support no more than three grant programs at a time. Applicants applying through fiscal sponsors must use the fiscal sponsor's organization account within the HumanitiesDC grants portal to submit their application. If the fiscal sponsor does not have an account, an authorized official from the fiscal sponsor organization must create one. HumanitiesDC will endeavor to work primarily with the team conducting the project, however, because fiscal sponsor organizations have fiduciary and financial responsibility for the grants, they support it will be necessary, at times, for representatives from the fiscal sponsor organization to review and sign off on financial documents or grant agreements.

Is there a cash match requirement?

There is no match requirement for this grant opportunity. However, if the project costs are more than the amount being awarded in this grant applicants are strongly encouraged to share other secured and planned funding sources in the Budget and Budget Narrative.

Can individuals apply for $10,000 in funding?

Yes, this year both Organizations and Individuals can apply for the maximum grant award of $10,000.

Will grantees, their employees, contractors, and interns be required to provide COVID-19 Vaccination Certification?

Due to the changing nature of DC Government requirements, please see the Mayor's Order
