ORGANIZATIONAL OVERVIEW

HumanitiesDC is the state humanities council for Washington DC. Founded in 1980, HumanitiesDC aims to use the humanities as a tool to help all Washingtonians, and others connected to the District, deepen their relationships with the city and each other through the sharing of unique and universal stories, the fostering of intellectual stimulation, and the promotion of cross-cultural understanding. We work to amplify DC residents' voices primarily through grantmaking and programs that support the making, recording and appreciation of all things related to our city's history, culture, and arts. We do this in partnership with other organizations, local scholars, field experts and humanists.

ORGANIZATIONAL CULTURE

HumanitiesDC is interested in creating a work environment and practices that are led by our collective values, including:

- Equity Driven We strive to center equity principles across our organization, internally and externally. This focus helps us broaden access, inclusion, and diversity in all our work to create structures that share power and core decision-making.
- Community Powered As an organization based in the humanities, we recognize that our work would not be possible if not for the strength and experiences of all the people who make up our city. Our aim is to build authentic relationships and collaborations that reflect the vibrancy of our community.
- Creative Vision We relish opportunities to venture into unexplored territory. We strive to bring a creative and entrepreneurial spirit into our collective work with the hopes of continuing to explore how the humanities can act as a connector across all our lives.
- Amplifying Voices We seek to use the power and resources made available to us to create spaces and opportunities to celebrate and share Washington, DC stories, culture, and experiences, especially those traditionally marginalized or left out of mainstream narratives.

- Acting with Integrity We are a curious group, excited to always better our grantmaking, public programs, internal culture, and community partnerships. We strive to be reflective, accountable, and ever-learning as we foster transparency across our organization and build mechanisms for feedback.

We strive to create a space that is welcoming, creative, energizing, respectful, and equitable for our team, partners, and participants. All programming aligns with the mission and values of the organization, is designed to reflect participating communities, is flexible enough to be responsive, and makes cultural connections wherever possible.

POSITION SUMMARY

The Public Programs Coordinator – Part Time supports HumanitiesDC’s public programs development, implementation, and partnerships in line with the organization’s mission, strategic goals, and planned growth. They work closely with the Director of Grantmaking and Programs, and programs team, to implement stellar long- and short-term programming and projects that creatively increase opportunities for all District residents to participate in the humanities. The Public Programs Coordinator is responsible for ensuring tasked programs goals and objectives are achieved. They also work closely with the Executive Director, and other staff, consultants, and fellows.

Additional responsibilities include supporting the HumanitiesDC team, with a particular focus on programming needs, engaging in cross-organizational projects and activities, and regularly participating in organizational events.

This position is a 20 hour per week hybrid schedule, with some flexibility on the dates and times. That said we would like the coordinator’s schedule to include times in the HumanitiesDC office, located in Adams Morgan, on Mondays and Wednesdays. The position involves supporting and attending occasional weekend and evening events.
