IN-KIND DONATIONS

In addition to monetary sponsorship, HumanitiesDC also welcomes donations of food, refreshment, and raffle items. The first 20 donations with a retail value of $250 or higher are eligible to take advantage of our sponsorship levels. All donations, regardless of size, will be acknowledged on promotional materials at the event and at least 2 newsletters.

GIVING GROUPS

Are you an individual interested in making a bigger impact? Consider gathering friends to form a giving group. By pooling your resources, you can collectively make a significant impact to HumanitiesDC with a shared gift to our fall fundraiser, amplifying your generosity and supporting our mission together. Group giving is eligible for sponsorship level benefits. Come up with a catchy name! (Limited addition tickets will be provided)

PAY IT FORWARD

We believe the humanities should be for everyone. HumanitiesDC works hard to keep programs free or affordable, but you can go further. Consider donating tickets so more community members who may otherwise find the ticket prices to be a financial barrier can attend this event.
